(b) if so, what are the details thereof; and

(c) the steps taken or proposed to be taken by Government to check the black money finding its way into the film industry?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Does not arise in view of (a) above.

(c) Whenever information regarding tax evasion by any assessee from this sector is received, appropriate inquiries by way of survey, search or other investigation is taken up. At the same time, assessments in the cases of film industry are made after proper inquiries and investigations.

World Economic Forum Meet

2007. B. K. HARIPRASAD: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that renowned economists from World over have opined that high level of foreign exchange reserves in India do not reflect necessarily a healthy balance of payment situation and whether such reserves have been built-up by portfolio invetments by overseas investors rather than any substantial increase in exports;

(b) whether it is also one of the views expressed in World Economic Forum Meet that the contemplated liberalisation of consumer goods import is uncalled for as the growth in imports was already much higher than indicated by the growth in industrial production; and

(c) what are the suggestions expressed of the World Economic Forum meet which Government proposes to take up for consideration to re-orient its fiscal policies?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) No, Sir. Renowned economists have not opined that high level of foreign exchange reserves do not reflect a healthy balance of payment situation. Country's foreign currency reserves which are at a level of about $ 19.4 billion have been built-up by reduction in current account deficit and increase in non-debt creating capital inflows. During the year 1992-93 and 1993-94, net cumulative portfolio investments were only $ 1.6 billion in total net capital account inflows of $ 13.4 billion.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Government considers all the views from national and international sources in framing its exim policy.
